

MARCUS BOEGLIN
Resident Partner

Bar Admission: Basel (1973) and Geneva (1996)

Areas of Practice:

Banking and Finance Law (Banking and Finance Regulations and Transactions, Private Banking and Compliance), Corporate Law (Establishments of Businesses, Corporate Governance and Compliance), Mergers and Acquisitions, Private Equity, Corporate Finance, Insolvency Law, and International Arbitration (in selected areas e.g. Joint Venture, Investment and Finance Disputes)

Professional Experience:

Since 09 2006 Resident Partner, LALIVE IN QATAR LLP, Doha/Qatar
From 1997 Lalive Attorneys-at-Law, Partner
From 1997 Lecturer at international conferences on Banking, Finance, Securities Law, M & A and Arbitration
1993-1996 Managing Director and Head of Risk Control at SBC Warburg, New York.
1989-1993 Managing Director; Head of division "Credits SBC Group" at SBC Head Office: monitoring of the bank's global counterparty risk exposure and development credit policies for the lending and trading product.
1983-1989 Head of Corporate Finance/Special Industries Group at SBC, New York: negotiating and structuring of complex financings.
1982-1983 Representative of SBC in Mexico-Debt negotiations, New York.
1974-1982 In-house Legal Counsel, Swiss Bank Corporation (SBC), Basel office.
1973-1974 General training in commercial banking at BNP, Paris.

Education:

1987 Stanford University, Senior Management Programme
1973 Bar Exam
1968-71 University of Basel, Faculty of Law, Lic. iur, Dr. iur.

Professional Associations:

Member of Geneva Bar
Swiss Federation of Lawyers
Swiss Society of International Law
International Bar Association
ASA (Swiss Arbitration Association)

Languages: German, English, and French

General Data:

Born in Basel, Switzerland